ARRANGING "AT HOME" ON THE EVE OF RETIREMENT OF DR M R GOVERDHAN, H O [App F III 2

File No 517 W of 195

Serial No

The Commissioner, Bangalore Corporation has sent a letter today requesting sanction of Government to spend a sum of Rs 1,000/- out of the Corporation Funds to give on "AT HOME" Dr M R Goverdhan, M B B S, D P H, D T M, & H, Health Officer, on 21-10-55 on the eve of laying down his office as Health Officer of the Corporation

Recently, Government have passed orders that Government servants should not accept address or participate in public functions that will be arranged on the eve of their transfer Whether this order applies to Officers who retire is a matter for consideration

Secondly, one thing has to be said that Dr Goverdhan was a public servant As a public servant he has done his duty There is nothing to recognise his services by spending a sum of Rs 1,000/- out of the Corporation Funds Therefore it is wrong on principle to allow public funds tobe spent on retirment of a particular officer Therefore, the proposal may perhaps be turned down The Chief Secretary may kindly be consulted in this matter as the Health officer drawing above Rs 500/-

Secy (Services)

I do not think that the proposal is acceptable from any point of view & it should be turned down For Chief Secy's remarks
